CPO Confirms Appointment of HR Advisers

March 25th, 2024 – The Chief Personnel Officer (CPO), Commander Dr. Daryl Dindial distributed appointment letters to nine (9) Human Resource Advisers in the Personnel Department. The CPO stated that the event represented a significant milestone for the Department signalling positive changes in its approach to talent management and employee development. He also added that it was the first time in years that so many persons were confirmed in the Personnel Department at the level of those Advisers.

He noted, the standards for promotion and confirmation is higher in the Personnel Department because of the depth of experience and expertise required to function as Human Resource Advisers in the Civil Service on behalf of the CPO.

The CPO congratulates the appointed officers and express the executive's commitment of trust in them and desire to see their growth continue for the benefit of the Civil Service.

The event was hosted at the Office of the Personnel Department on March 22nd, 2024.
